

Lesson on The Math of Dinosaurs
Note to Teachers

Grade Level - 5th grade

Approximate time - 40 minutes, including time spent discussing results and answers.

Skills practiced - reading for information and meaning, changing from one unit of measurement to another, basic operations, writing numbers, scientific notation (optional), graphing and writing.

NYS Standards covered - Number and Numeration, Operations, and Modeling and Multiple Representation.

Note: This lesson can be extended to include more graphing. The web site used are very colorful but occasionally have advertisements that pop-up. Please warn students not to click on any of the advertisements.